

United States District Court Case No. 04-11868-JLT
Hon. Patti B. Saris, District Judge
United States Courthouse
1 Courthouse Way, Suite 6130
Boston, Massachusetts 02110.

Re: Further harassment and retaliation.

My Dear Honorable Judge Saris:

First and foremost, it is my heart's sincere wishes that this document finds you in the very best of health and spirits that God can give!

Your Honor, I am writing to inform your Honorable Court that at approximately 3:58 PM, on 10.19.04, officer Brenson who has been harassing, threatening, and retaliating against me came to my cell to try and force a cellmate in and I refused, because I strongly believe they're trying to place my life in jeopardy, due to filing complaints against these officials!

Your Honor, prior to this incident, I spoke to my casemanager Mrs. Jenkins and informed her of what these staff are doing, and are trying to do. I also made her aware of the fact that during my last phone call home, I learned that my brother has been very impatient and verbally abusive towards my grandmother! I informed Mrs. Jenkins that all of this has me under a tremendous amount of stress, fear, and depression! Mrs. Jenkins made a note to have someone from the psychology department speak with me, because (she) notice that I'm having some type of breakdown!

However, every officer that worked this Special Housing Unit is aware of how deeply I love my grandmother, and my desire to be free to care for her. I have asked, begged, and pleaded with officer Brunson on several occasions to please leave me alone and let me go home to my grandmother, to no avail! So today, again, officer Brunson ceased yet another opportunity to harass and retaliate against!

Your Honor, I have personally seen several inmates deny officer Brewson from putting another inmate in the cell which they occupy alone without receiving a disciplinary report! In fact, officer Brewson told me to don't go crying to Lt. Tucker about giving me a disciplinary report. But after leaving my cell he went to cell 102, and 130 who refused cellmates and made no mention of a disciplinary report!

Your Honor, due to the magnitude of my complaints and the officials involved, one being Mrs. Jenkes, wife of captain Jenkens I earnestly believe that my well being is, and will continue to be in jeopardy unless I am immediately removed from the BOP system!

Enclosed is a copy of the disciplinary report to further substantiate my claim! As ever, I thank you in advance for your time, understanding and assistance!

Very truly yours,
Mr. Washington
